MINE LOCKOUT

Men Required To Sign United Mine Workers' Check-off

A lockout occurred at the Bellevue mine of the West Canadian Collieries on Tuesday, when an order was issued to the effect that no men be permitted to go to work without signing the U.M. W. of A. check-off. Some four hundred men were thus locked out.

As a result of this lockout, a mass meeting of miners was held in the Blairmore opera house on Wednesday afternoon, attended by over five hundred mine workers and a sympathetic public. The chair was occupied by Mayor Egan, and three representatives of the One Big Union appeared on the platform. Several organizers and representatives of the United Mine Workers were known to be in town, but in spite of invitations failed to put in appearance to give explanation justifying the action at Bellevue. A deputation comprising Tom Hughes, Enoch Williams and Bill Patterson, was elected by the meeting to retire and make further effort to have the representatives of the opposition attend, so that the public may benefit from hearing both sides of the grievances. Bob Levitt and John O. Jones were located at the Cosmopolitan hotel, but refused emphatically to attend the meeting.

President Beard, of Michel, Organizer Christopher, of Blairmore, and Jack Brooks, of Bellevue addressed the meeting.

The following resolution was moved by Rod McDonald and seconded by P. M. Christopher and unanimously endorsed:

"Whereas, we believe it to be the inalienable right of every Canadian worker to determine for himself whether or not they should become a member of a labor organization;

"And whereas, we believe that every Canadian worker should have the right of self-determination in their choice of labor organization, if any;

"Therefore, be it resolved by the citizens of Blairmore, in public meeting assembled, that we strongly disapprove of the methods adopted by the Department of Labor, the Western Coal Operators' Association, and the United Mine Workers of America, in trying to force the coal miners of this district to become members of a foreign labor organization.

And, be it further resolved that a copy of this resolution be forwarded to the Hon. Gordon Robertson, minister of labor; W. F. McNeil, secretary of the Western Coal Operators' Association; and W. H. Armstrong, director of coal operations."

Another motion to the effect that the industrial workers of Blairmore stand by the locked-out One Big Union members of Bellevue was made by P. M. Christopher and was unanimously supported.

COMMUNICATIONS.

Blairmore, Alta., March 9, Editor Enterprise.

Dear Sir:—In the March 4th issue of your paper, a letter dealing with affairs of Blairmore School District, appeared under the name of F. Wright.

With your permission I will reply to F. Wright's effort to pose before the people of Blairmore as a martyr to duty and honesty, in just a few words.

Insofar as I am concerned with the change in the office of secretary, I supported the motion that F. Wright be relieved from the duties of the office because I was convinced that he was not giving satisfactory attention to the affairs of the district, and for no other

CONVENTION

On the Bootleggers' Union

On Monday the bootleggers of the Past held an invitation party at Coleman. The invitations were sent out by Detective Hesketh, of the Attorney-General's department, to all who in the opinion of that department had qualified. The affair was held in the barracks of the Alberta Provincial Police, which had been specially arranged and decorated for the occasion, and was presided over by Major Barrell, recently appointed police magistrate for this district. In the election there were quite a number of candidates, and six were duly elected. Fees were paid according to merit. Certain individuals were charged with having offended the liquor laws for a considerable time, and apparently because of the length of time in the bootlegging business, and the amount of money made, were assessed higher dues than the new initiates who were not yet properly posted in the business. Detective Hesketh informed the session that the object of the department was to teach these individuals the error of their ways, and by taxing them a substantial sum would give them the constant care and surveillance of the department of attorney-general. Under the old system bootleggers were unknown; now they have won a place prominent in the land. Formerly it was necessary for anyone in the liquor business to be prescribed by the department, and to pay a license fee to the province, which in some cases amounted to several hundred dollars. Now the bootleggers were permitted to peddle their wares in any old shack and were only called upon for funds when the department was in need of money or when the bootleggers' offers were known to be full to overflowing. Fees collected at this meeting amounted to $75. To this may be added collection expenses, which would bring the grand total up to considerably over one thousand dollars. It was pleasing to note many new faces around the corridors, and to know that the new O. B. U. was taking strides of becoming a strong and active organization. Different nationalities were represented in the attendance on Monday, including English, Italian, Chinese, Welsh, Dutch and Hungs. Owing to election being incomplete, adjournment took place until Tuesday next at 10 a. m.; when the petitions of Michel Rose and others will be considered.

reason; and I have no doubt that the other trustees have good and sufficient reasons for their stand in the matter.

The insinuations in F. Wright's letter are worthy of the author and not worth replying to.

Permit me to state that the business of the Blairmore School District is conducted openly, and all ratepayers are entitled to any information pertaining thereto, and I am sure that any pertinent inquiry or criticism will be respected by the Board.

Yours truly,
ALLAN HAMILTON,
Chairman of School Board.

Dear Sir:—On behalf of the Returned Soldiers' Bureau of Blairmore I beg the opportunity, through the columns of the Enterprise, of acknowledging receipt from Knights of Columbus Catholic Army Huts fund, Lethbridge, of $35.00 to defray the expense of Kerr's Orchestra for our reception to returned soldiers held January 29th, and transportation from and to Bellevue.

On behalf of the Bureau I also wish to thank those in charge of the fund for this generous and very acceptable donation.

Yours truly,

How To Get It

"How can I go about to get a drink in this town?" asked a recently-arrived guest, who looked as if he needed irrigation. "Well," replied the landlord of the tavern, "I'll tell you what you might do: Go to the second corner up the street, pass around it to the ally; go down the ally about half-way and you'll come to a gate standing open, a crack in a fence made out of old billboard lumber. Go in through the gate and along to a cellar back of the shanty standing in the lot, lift the cellar door and go down the steps, whistle three times, and diggity old fellow will come out with a lantern, and look you over, and tell you that there ain't nothin' doing in this dock, blasted town since the blackly-blacked Frothingtons got so state-dred active. That is the best I can do for you, Mr."

The Business of Farming

The approach of spring, with the renewal of Nature's activities after the long rest of winter, inevitably leads also to a renewal of man's activities, especially in the lines of productive effort. In some countries climatic conditions permit of year-round agricultural work with a rotation of crops, and such climates also make possible the carrying on of out-of-door work of all kinds. This, however, is not true of Western Canada, where the major activities of both Nature and man are sharply divided by the seasons—a long period of rest and recuperation during the winter, and a time of activity during the late spring, summer, and early fall months, far surpassing that known in more southerly climes.

And what is true on the farm is true in the cities and towns of the West. In other provinces and countries industrial activity is maintained throughout the winter in factories and shops, but in the less industrially organized West hundreds of workmen who are busily engaged in the summer are largely idle throughout the winter. The carrying on of building operations, road and railway construction, and out-of-door work of all kinds is largely at a standstill for five months of the year.

These are fact conditions well known to everybody, but people are frequently inclined to overlook their significance in the organization of their business activities, and in dealing with economic problems confronting them. These conditions have a direct bearing on both farm and city labor, on wage demands by the workers, on the purchase and transportation of all kinds of material. If the hired farm worker is engaged for only six or seven months of the year he must, of necessity, earn sufficient to carry him through his winter months of idleness, or find other employment at a time when work is difficult to secure. The city worker engaged in the building trades must earn and by during the months of building activity a reserve fund to support himself and family during the winter when he cannot secure work, or can only do so by moving elsewhere at great expense and inconvenience to himself and family.

So, too, in the accumulation of supplies of materials of all kinds. These things, so essential to the doing of a maximum amount of work during the seasonable months, can only be assembled during the winter at a heavy cost of interest on money thus invested, insurance, storage, and transportation charges paid out. The net result is, of course, that there is frequently a shortage of supplies in the months when they are wanted, and an inevitable increase in the cost of work done owing to delays in securing requirements, and—in the expense of handling rush orders.

These are annually recurring difficulties against which the people of the West have to contend. They probably affect the city employer and employee more directly than they do the farmer, but they react upon him and serve to intensify his problem of how to increase production of foodstuffs—for which the whole world is crying—and yet do so at a cost which will yield him a fair margin of profit on his labor and outlay, and not result in actual loss.

Western Canada farmers are already preparing for active farm operations. A demand for farm help is reported by the Government employment offices throughout the West. Most farmers are anxious to crop every possible acre of land. They want to increase production. But many of them are in a quandary. They are fearful whether the costs of labor, machinery, farm necessities of all kinds, will not more than eat up any profit that may accrue to them from enlarged operations in the work of food production.

A difficulty with which most farmers find themselves confronted is a lack of data upon which to arrive at any conclusion. Unlike the city business man, the average farmer does not keep books. He cannot tell from what phase of his farm operations in past years he made money, or where he lost money. There are leaks in his business, just as there are in every business, but the city merchant has a means of finding them out and stopping them, while the average farmer has provided himself with no means of locating them.

About to start on a new year of activity, the farmer of Western Canada should realize that the day of guesswork in carrying on farm operations is over, just as truly as it passed long ago in connection with other businesses. The farmer must know what it costs to raise a crop, and he must make his buying and selling a business proposition. He should start his 1920 operations with a clear determination to find out exactly where his business stands. If for no other reason than that he will thereby have something to guide him a year hence.

Wise legislation may assist prosperity, but it is not possible to legislate prosperity, and the farmer should, so far as is humanly possible, place himself in a position to know and size up his market, just as the merchant knows what his goods cost him and the price at which he can afford to sell them. If the farmers of Western Canada could produce facts and figures of their business, as Eastern manufacturers and other business men can, he would be in a position to influence the enactment of much of the remedial legislation he now demands, but which at present he can only support by very general statements.

Briquette Plant Being Installed

Fresh Step in the Development of Lignite Fields in Saskatchewan
Considerable progress is now being made with the installation of the plant for the making of briquettes at Blenheim, near Estevan. Tenders are now being called by the Dominion Government for the erection of the new buildings at Hudson Bay Mine.

The erection of the plant will be proceeded with as early as possible in the spring for the lignite utilization board. It is the intention of the board to have lignite briquettes on the market by August. The plant will cost in the neighborhood of $400,000. The construction of the plant at Hudson Bay Mine is the first step in the development of the lignite fields of Saskatchewan, which, it is stated, will give winter employment to hundreds of people in the province.

Stops Bronchitis Quickly Without Any Medicine

This Problem Solved When Catarrhozone Was Discovered

Thousands Have Been Cured
You are nothing but a plain, simple boob to suffer a day longer from Bronchitis. It's real easy to cure—this has been proved time and again. Relief comes at once when you breathe in the soothing vapor of Catarrhozone. Once its healing, piny essence strikes the bronchial tubes, you realize that a powerful treatment is at work.

Irritation can't live in the throat of a person inhaling Catarrhozone. It is so soothing; so warming; so full of concentrated healing power that you realize that a powerful treatment is at work. Catarrhozone strengthens the weak throat, stops the cough, removes that hacking irritating phlegm to clear the throat, makes even the chronic sufferer discover that at last he has discovered a real cure. For coughs, colds, catarrh, and winter illness, nothing in the family could be better than the complete dollar outfit. ## British Sewing Machines and Type-writers

One of the British manufacturing developments delayed by the war was the production of a new type of sewing machine. Already, however, large numbers of these British-designed and British-built machines are on the market. A still more notable development is the mass production of typewriting machines by more than one British firm. It is expected that the appearance of this supply will have a very marked effect on markets for these machines in all parts of the world.

China's Campaign Against Opium

Orders Given by the Civil Governor To Stop the Traffic in This Drug

The International Anti-Opium Association, Peking, has received a copy of a list presented to Mr. Chu, Civil Governor of Tsinanfu, showing the number of dealers in morphia in that city. The list, which is practically seven feet long, contains the names and addresses of 39 Chinese dealers, 32 Japanese, and five Russians. Orders have been given by the Civil Governor to stop the traffic in this drug, but, of course, these apply only to the Chinese dealers. Many Chinese shops have been raided and closed, but no response has yet been received as to what action will be taken against the Japanese and Russians by their respective authorities.

The Tsinan branch of the International Anti-Opium Association made representations to the Japanese consul, who expressed his appreciation of the work done by the association and promised his sympathetic support, but he remarked that China was responsible for the stopping of the drug. He was of the opinion that while it was easy to deal with the common people, it was not so easy to deal with the upper classes and the officials, who were considerable users. As long as they were not dealt with there would be a considerable traffic.

She Feels She Owe Her Life to Them

WHAT MISS EAGLE SAYS OF DODD'S KIDNEY PILLS

Ormsby lady who suffered from Diabetes for five years tells of the benefit she received from Dodd's Kidney Pills. "I feel I owe my life to Dodd's Kidney Pills," she writes. "I came from the lips of Miss Gertrude Eagle, a well-known and highly respected resident of this place. And Miss Eagle gives her reasons for speaking out in terms, that none can fail to understand."

"I have been suffering from Diabetes for five years," she states. "I tried the doctors, but they could do nothing for me. A friend told me of Dodd's Kidney Pills and of their great value. I tried one box and they helped me. I have now taken three boxes and they have done me so much good I feel I owe my life to them."

Diabetes is one of the most advanced and dangerous forms of kidney trouble. A remedy that will relieve Diabetes will act much more quickly on minor kidney ills. Ask your neighbor if Dodd's Kidney Pills are not the sovereign remedy for all forms of kidney trouble.

Buy at Home

Productive Energy of an Increased Population Will Soon Regulate Exchange Situation

Winnipeg has started on a "Buy at Home" campaign in earnest, and its example should be generally followed throughout the entire country. The change is to act on the principles enunciated by the organizers of this movement, buying of Canadian and British goods, greater thrift and production at home. Hamilton should follow suit in taking up the patriotic slogan, "Productive energy of an increased population will soon regulate our exchange situation," says E. P. Winslow, superintendent of the Bank of Montreal. "There is work in Canada for the well-to-do, as well as those who must work for a living." It is the duty of all to cease purchasing goods of United States origin, especially luxuries. As for necessities, preference should in all cases be given to articles of domestic, or at any rate empire, production. "Cut out the luxuries from the United States," says George Munro, western superintendent of the Merchants' Bank; "work a little harder and save a little more." Sir John Willison declares that Canada's future prosperity depends on "mutual good will and greater production."

Advocates Compulsory Education in English

To Distribute English-Speaking Teachers Among the Foreign Settlers

J. T. M. Anderson, director of education among the English-speaking settlers in Saskatchewan, addressed a gathering in Toronto recently on the principles of the Canadianization or assimilation of foreigners in Saskatchewan. He appealed to the public to support the attempt to distribute English-speaking teachers among the foreign settlers of Northwestern Canada. He expressed the opinion that compulsory education in English, which is in force in many of the settlements, should be extended throughout the whole of Canada.

The meeting was not altogether sympathetic with Mr. Anderson's views. Some opinions were advanced, in general discussion, to the effect that assimilation and compulsory education in English were un-British and a form of persecution.

PALE, WAN CHEEKS A SIGN OF ANAEMIA

To Have Good Color and Health the Blood Must Be Kept Red and Pure

Many women who had good color and bright eyes in their girlhood grew pale and colorless and lost much of their charm when they became wives and mothers. Why is it? When the fading color in the cheeks and lips is accompanied by a loss of brightness in the eyes and an increasing heaviness in the step and a tendency to tire easily, the cause is to be sought in the state of the blood.

Many causes may contribute to the condition of the blood known as anaemia. Lack of the home, overwork, lack of outdoor exercise, insufficient rest and sleep, improper diet, are a few of them. The important thing is to restore the blood, to build it up so that the color will return to the cheeks and lips, brightness to the eyes and lightness to the step. To do this, nothing can equal Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. They begin at once to increase the red corpuscles in the blood, and this new blood carries strength and health to every part of the body. The appetite improves, digestion becomes perfect, and energy and ambition return. Proof is given in the statement of Mrs. Alex. Archibald, Cornwall, Ont., who says: "Two years ago my health began to fail. I was suffering from headache, pain in the back and sides, and a constant tired out feeling. I had used a lot of medicine, but without success. I seemed to be growing weaker. My friends urged me to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and I decided to do so. To my great surprise, after taking a few bottles, I felt that I would be ungrateful if I did not give my experience with Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, in the hope that it might be of help to some other poor sufferer."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills can be obtained through any medicine dealer, or may be had by mail, post paid, at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockton, Mass.

Preparedness For World Disasters

GENEVA, March 9.—The congress of Red Cross societies in session here Thursday authorized the administration department of the International Red Cross League to proceed at once with a world-wide scheme of preparedness for disasters. The plan contemplates a Red Cross disaster organization in every community composed of a group of representative men and women.

Roughly 2,332,400 hogs were slaughtered at government-inspected packing houses last year, an increase of 72,000 on the previous year.

Germany Coming Back

NEW YORK, March 9.—Germany is on the way to a great industrial comeback, according to Col. William N. Hensley, U. S. A., just returned from five months' aeronautical observation in that country. He says Germany and Belgium are the only two European countries that have gone to work since the war.

Britain Was There

Major Ian Hay, Keith tells an amusing experience of an American officer who was instructed to take over a French village. The Americans got to the village more easily than they had expected and when they reached the little market square they saw the reason. A British tank was squatting plumb in the centre. It had been there for about four minutes. When the young officer in charge of the tank saw the American major he remounted down, saluted and formally handed over the village. The major saluted back and thanked him "We wish somehow," the young officer said thoughtfully, "that we had something to show, sir, that we were here first." The major thought a minute. Then he said: "I can fix that for you. I'll give you a receipt for the village. And he did." Received from officer commanding British tank. Bing Boy, one village—in poor condition.

When the Leyland steamer Bohemia broke in two on the Broad-beakers, off Halifax harbor, seven men of the crew were lost, all natives of Liverpool, England.

A peculiar case which recently came before a London magistrate was that of a woman who applied for a separation from her husband, whom she denounced as the champion mean man of all England. She complained that her husband, during the sugar famine, kept his supply in a separate bowl, in which he imprisoned a fly. If the fly was still there when he returned home nobody had tampered with his hoard; if it was not a lump or two had been taken.

To Whom It May Concern

This is to notify the public that as my wife, Mary Giza, has left my home, bed and board without just cause, I, the undersigned, will not be responsible for any debts contracted by her after this date.

Dated at Coleman, Alberta, this 25th day of February, 1920.

STEVE GIZA.

Notice

In respect to the above notice, I beg to inform the public of my reasons for leaving the said Steve Giza. Giza has not properly treated me, has not made proper provision for food and clothing, and has on more than one occasion ill-treated me.

Government Clyde Stallion

Parties wishing to breed mares to the Clydesdale stallion purchased by the Alberta Department of Agriculture, "Cragie Masterpiece" 1827, during the season of 1920, will make application to S. G. Carlyle, Live Stock Commissioner, Department of Agriculture, Edmonton, giving name and registration number of mares. A fee of $25 will be payable at time of service, and a further fee to be fixed by the Clydesdale committee and the Live Stock Commissioner, will be payable when the mare proves to be in foal.

The location of the horse in the province will also be decided by the committee, and arrangements will be made that the service fees in every case will cover the cost as to equalize cost to parties residing in different parts of the province. Further particulars will be published shortly, but parties desiring to breed mares should make application at once. The stallion will likely be ready to begin the season about May 1st. The Committee and Live Stock Commissioner reserve the right to revise the list of applications and make such rules and regulations as may be deemed necessary regarding the services of this stallion.

S. G. CARLYLE
 Live Stock Commissioner.

Singular Funerals

An Abyssinian funeral is a very singular affair, says Tit-Bits. When a new-born infant dies it is almost immediately buried under the floor. After the demise of an adult, the body is washed in water, sweetened with honey, wrapped in a shroud, sewed up in a mat of straw and laid upon a litter made of boughs cut from trees.

The lamentations of the relatives resounded among the cliffs, and the news is rapidly communicated to all the people of the neighborhood, who at once set out to condole with the mourners.

As soon as they catch sight of the funeral procession they begin to weep and cry aloud. When they join it the men range themselves on one side of the bier, the women on the other, and chant. When the religious ceremony is over the corpse is buried in the churchyard.

A Wise Scotchman

A Scotchman went to a solicitor, laid before him a question in dispute, and asked if he would undertake to win the case.

"Certainly," replied the solicitor, "I will undertake the case. We are sure to win."

"So you really think it is a good case?"

"Most decidedly, my dear sir. I am prepared to guarantee that you will receive a favorable verdict."

"Ah, well, I'm much obliged to ye, but I dinna think I'll go to law this time, for, ye see, the case I've laid before ye is my opponent's."

PREMIER DRURY'S CHALLENGE LIKELY TO BE EXPENSIVE

Now Called Upon to Give $500 to Charitable Organization

Toronto March 10.—While Premier E. C. Drury was a candidate in Halton county for a seat in the legislature and was being opposed by E. J. Stephenson, Toronto, a returned soldier, a report was circulated that Mr. Drury had had a soldier arrested on his farm at Crown Hill for trespassing, while a battalion was stationed at Barrie. The premier denied this and it was said that he offered to give $500 to any charitable institution if a man could be produced who had been arrested on his farm.

Sergeant Major Joseph McNamara, M. P. P., for Riverdale, has come forward with an affidavit made by Kenneth Cox, of Milton, Halton county, a former soldier, to the effect that, because of a complaint of trespass preferred by Mr. Drury against him and several companions in February, 1916, while with the 76th battalion at Barrie, Cox and his companions were placed under arrest by a sergeant and confined to the guard-house for half an hour.

Sergeant Major McNamara asks the premier to give the $500 to the soldiers' exchange house.

To Keep Liquor Out

The following is the text of a motion introduced in the provincial legislature at Edmonton last week by Hon. J. R. Boyle, attorney-general:

"Whereas, by the Canada Temperance Act, Chapter 125, of the revised statutes of Canada, 1906, as amended by Chapter 2 of the statutes of 1919, second session, it is provided that, subject to Sub-Section 20 of section 150 of the said Act, upon the receipt by the secretary of state of Canada, of a resolution of the assembly of any province in which there is at the time in force a law prohibiting the sale of intoxicating liquor for beverage purposes, requesting that the votes of the electors in all the electoral districts of the province may be taken for or against the following prohibition, that is to say, that the importation and the bringing of intoxicating liquors into such province may be forbidden;

"And whereas, there is at the present time in force in the province of Alberta a law prohibiting the sale of intoxicating liquor for beverage purposes;

"And whereas, it is desirable that the votes of the electors in all the electoral districts of the province, pursuant to the provisions of the said act, may be taken for or against, for the following prohibition; that is to say,

"That the importation and the bringing of intoxicating liquors into such province may be forbidden;

"Therefore, be it resolved that this legislative assembly requests that the votes of the electors in all the electoral districts of the province may be taken for or against the following prohibition; that is to say,

"That the importation and the bringing of intoxicating liquors into such province may be forbidden."

Big Concert and Dance Under Auspices of School

Leslie Grossmith Coming on the 23rd March

The grand concert and dance under the auspices of the Blairmore School will introduce Mr. Leslie Grossmith, the famous English entertainer and musician of international fame. Not only will the school funds be considerably enhanced, but the music-loving and entertainment-going people of Blairmore and district, who are fortunate enough to be present, will experience an exceptional treat at the opera house on Tuesday, March 23rd. Nothing we can say will add anything to the reputation of Leslie Grossmith, and we will leave the verdict to the intelligence of the assemblage. In the company will be Miss Marguerite Hill, a charming and talented young soprano, who will sing beautiful songs of a popular nature. The program is most varied, containing a continued round of good things: Songs, humorous monologues, jokes, stories, character readings, and sketches, classical and popular music. Music for the dance, which is to follow, will be special. No body can afford to miss this unusual and genuine treat.

The Man Hunt

They're off! The great quadrilateral man-hunt has started. Everywhere in this fair land women have become positive Diancas and are joining in the chase for that most elusive of animals, a husband. As I understand it, prospective husbands are something like Chinese pheasants and rabbits—the natural increase is more than the legitimate market can absorb, under the recognized protection of our present game laws, so every four years the least whole and fancy free organize a gigantic battle and go out in the highways and byways to bring home the bacon. In the past month, then, the immediate little fellow plays out, or goes on strike, or maybe he's a snail, and his shooting average drops 'way down. His arrows may find a few marks, but they're mostly easy marks. At the same time, he's providing raw material for the benefit of clergy and the divorce mills, the human race would eventually have to be decimated for lack of starters.

It is at this stage that the women step into the breach, so that they may later step into the breach. Leap year—so-called because it keeps the men on the jump—is the time when the female of the species is most deadly on the male. Originally, man proposes and God disposes, but in 1920 woman proposes and the race is to be swift. A quick thinker can sometimes get away by pleading a previous engagement, but even then they're liable to be tripped up by the statute of limitations; no engagement dating back more than three years is recognized as valid, and any girl has a license to trip him in.

In this catch-as-catch-can contest the dashing Diancas start their game in a natural way. Each is as Nature made her, without artificial aids or embellishments, except such as can be got G. O. D. at any large department store, where fortune favors the fair. As a bait to the unwary in the matter of clothes she seeks to prove that woman wants but little here and there, so that she can have it all. If it keeps on, the present tendency of dresses to gravitate towards the waist from both ends will inevitably result in quite smart styles in belts. The bare fact, however, is that the less there is to a dress, the more it costs; dresses are always just what you know this, and it's a matter of history that Lady Godiva's famous costume of chastity and flowing locks cost her lord an immense sum.

Another argument which is made to do splendid service is that famous statement that two can live as cheaply as one. Don't you believe it. In these days of profiteering, it's all one can do to live, let alone live cheaply. As for two—well, even coy maidens (yes, there are still a few living with spinster aunts or in convent) know very well that the ordinary rules of the multiplication table do not apply in matrimony. There is an elasticity in the addition of one to one that is appalling. You can expand that statement to suit yourself—that's why I put the elastic in it.

Of course, the ordinary man is fairly safe for the first few months of the year. It's the real matrimonial prices that are being hunted from cover to cover just now, but it's just like a tag day affair: there's a mighty little chance of escaping. Just to add a little touch of romance to their worldly wisdom, most of the girls in this town are heading their list of prospects with the name of the Prince of Wales. Not that they expect to get him, really, but it gives chic and eclat and creme de la creme to the enterprise. I take it he's a sort of royal patron; he's a good sport anyway, and a little more or less knee-slapping won't worry him.

To those harried men who aspire after liberty without license, I send forth this solemn warning: Avoid dark corners. More matrimonial traps are sprung in dark corners than in the market place. If you must go in a dark corner, take a crowd along with you. Even the wildest woman will hesitate about springing a proposal on you in front of a large assembly. She may not hesitate if only five or six are present, but unless she is a lady O. B. U., stranger will have a deterrent effect upon her. She'll watchfully wait for another chance, and when she does get you right, you'll see her wind up the gramophone. Next thing you'll hear her heart beating time to the strains of "Love's Young Dream" and it will be quite a strain, too.

Somed men feel like congratulating themselves when they've safely escaped from the wiles of one woman. As if that be done out of the world! They'll have a lot more laughing to do before the chase is over. Here are some discouraging figures to illustrate my meaning:

In the British Empire, Dan Cupid has given power of attorney to $1,754,903 women of more than 16 years of age.

In the United States, 17,583,740 girls of married ages and sizes are right on the job this minute.

of these women is light to pick on. Mr. Optimist. What chance has he against the horde of 99,508,702 husband-hunters? Why if it took only one minute to pass upon the merits of each case, it would take the proposed 201 years and 201 days to decide each individual honor, and the waiting line would stretch from here to the south-east corner of Texas; then, in irregular zig-zag for the whole length of the American continent, each woman being a certain defined distance from every other woman, until the last in the queue would stand up to her hips in the ocean off Cape Horn. At the rate of progress the poor creature might very easily catch her death of cold, thereby depriving her of her leap year birthright. And here's another gloomy little bit of news. When a gentleman has fatiguedly explained that he can only be a brother to the lady, it's up to him to give her a silk dress to soften the blow. Fine business for silk merchants! Rather. Why? Ladies Burbank has agreed to produce a new kind of mulberry tree, so more silkworms may be bred, so more silk may be spun, so more dresses may be made, so more brotherly vows may be softened. Pretty soft, isn't it? Personally, I hope to live all I get married of my own free will. But experts tell me that never happens.—A Teacher.

France Objects to Any Modification Of Peace Terms

Paris. — The French government will make determined opposition to any revision of the treaty of Versailles that would modify her claim on Germany, it is learned here.

The attitude of the French government, according to the official point of view, is in perfect accord with the sentiments of the new chamber of deputies. It is held that any further concessions by the French government to Germany would not be tolerated by parliament, and if made the government would be overthrown.

The French official view of the economic situation, it was said in authoritative circles, is quite realistic. It is held that the French government is all Europe must be put on a prosperous basis. The French, however, it was pointed out, are beginning to think their allies have forgotten that France herself is not on a prosperous basis, and not in a position to make concessions that would affect her own economic interests to anyone, least of all to Germany.

Against Sale of The West Indies

Suggestion of Viscount Rothermere Evokes Little Comment in Great Britain

London.—The proposition to sell the British West Indies to the United States to help balance Great Britain's war debt has evoked little comment. The proposal is not supported in any responsible quarter, and unless the attitude of Premier Lloyd George changed recently, it is certain to be unfavorably received by the government.

Viscount Rothermere, brother of Lord Northcliffe, a few months ago made such a suggestion in a newspaper article. It is reported that Premier Lloyd George denounced the proposition in vehement terms to his intimates.

More Interest in Farming

Big Demand for Farm Literature in Two Tongues

Ottawa.—A veritable flood of applications for farm literature is reported from the offices of the Commission of Conservation.

The department printed a third edition of 15,000 account books given free to farmers, and before the issue was off the press every copy had been applied for. An issue published in French was similarly taken up. Department officials declare it is the greatest wave of recognition on the part of farmers that business and scientific principles are essential to the success of modern farm life.

Soviets Approach Japan

London.—A wireless dispatch from Moscow says that the Irkutsk representative of the Soviet commissariat of foreign affairs has been instructed to hand the Bolshevik peace proposals to the Japanese headquarters there, and agree with the Japanese government on the time and place for holding negotiations.

More Proposals For Settlement Of Irish Question

Montreal.—The Montreal Star publishes the following from a staff correspondent in Dublin:

"While Ulster is anxiously waiting the arrival of Sir Edward Carson to decide its policy regarding the latest Home Rule Bill, the remainder of Ireland is holding back to hear the proposals of Sir Horace Plunkett, who has lately returned from the United States.

"Sir Horace, since his arrival in London, has maintained absolute silence, but it is announced that the alternative demand to the present bill will be presented to a great representative meeting to be held in Dublin.

"On the highest authority, I am able to forecast that Sir Horace Plunkett's policy would bring Ireland into a whirlpool of international affairs. First, it includes the previous demand for full Dominion status, claiming the right of the various countries to decide their relations to

Sweden Votes to Join League of Nations

Liberal and Socialist Speakers Joined With Premier in Favoring Action

Stockholm.—By a vote of 152 to 67 the lower house of the Diet voted in favor of Swedish participation in the League of Nations.

The vote followed a strong argument for the proposition by Premier Eden. He was supported by Liberal and Socialist speakers, who declared the League marked a great advance towards an effective system of international law.

The upper chamber deferred its discussion of the question of Sweden's membership in the League.

Typhus Raging in Poland

Thousands of Cases Are Being Taken Into Country By Released Prisoners

New York.—Poland is confronted with the worst typhus epidemic in the history of the world, the American relief administration was informed by Col. Gilchrist, head of the American anti-typhus expedition in Europe. The city says thousands of cases are being imported into Poland from the Ukraine and the east by refugees and released prisoners of war from Russia. Bolshevik armies are riding themselves of typhus cases by shipping them to the Polish border.

There is a high death rate among the doctors treating the stricken.

Russia Wants to Trade

Has Huge Store of Goods to Offer to the World

London.—According to a London Times dispatch from Abo, Finland; M. Gukowski, chief of the Bolshevik trade delegation, told the press representatives that Russia chiefly desired commercial relations with England, the United States, Norway, and Sweden. He added that Russia had enormous stores of food, wool, leather, flax, hemp and skins and desired the nations in trade to assist in improving the means of transportation from Russia.

U.S. Won't Take Part

London.—There has been no intention, and there is none now, of American naval participation in the Dardanelles, according to an announcement here.

The British Admiralty states there is no confirmation of the report that the British intend to send more ships to the Dardanelles.

Shanting Reservation Is Re-adopted

Washington.—The Shanting reservation to the peace treaty as modified in the bi-partisan compromise conference, was re-adopted by the senate. The vote was 48 to 21, as compared to a vote of 33 to 41 when the reservation first was adopted in November.

the central constituent assembly by a proportional representation vote. Then the committee of the League of Nations would examine the claims of all parties to co-operate with the assembly in the formulation of a political constitution.

"It is also stated that Sir Horace has the firm promise of the United States to withdraw the reservations to the covenant of the League of Nations, which affects Dominion votes in the League of Nations, and also to assist to enter the League of Nations, if Ireland is granted representation of a Dominion status.

"Meanwhile every effort is being made here to bring together all the parties to agree to Plunkett's proposal and this effort is not without success.

Gives Himself Up After Six Years

Wear of Globe Trotting, Winnipeg Man Surrenders on Manslaughter Charge

Ottawa.—Conscience stricken and weary of his wanderings all over the face of the globe, Henry William Elkborn, wanted at Winnipeg on a charge of manslaughter, walked into the police station and surrendered himself.

The crime with which Elkborn charges himself is that on one night in June, 1914, he stole an automobile in which he went joy-riding with a friend named George Graff. While travelling at a fast clip the automobile upset and Graff was badly injured in the fall. Realizing his friend was in extremis, and fearful of the results of his escapade, he made the injured man comfortable by the roadside and then fled from Winnipeg. Graff died a few days later, and Elkborn, changing his name to Arthur James Ford, hearing a warrant was out for his arrest, tried to enlist, but was rejected as medically unfit. He later secured a job as a stoker on an ocean-going ship, and in it quattered the globe. Tired of his seafaring life, he returned to Canada, made his way to Toronto, where he was recognized and narrowly escaped capture. From there he went to Hamilton, and was again in danger of arrest. Finally, a few days ago, after stalking himself to a remote living by spasmodic employment, he came to Ottawa, and finding himself unable to get work of any kind, he acted upon a letter he received from his mother advising him to surrender to the authorities.

Elkborn will be held in jail, pending receipt of information from the Winnipeg authorities.

Transport Strike Threatened

Food Supply May Be Affected By a Walkout

London.—Great Britain is threatened with a nation-wide strike of highway transportation workers involving from 150,000 to 170,000 men. The movement would seriously affect the distribution of food. The headquarters of the national federation of transportation workers has authorized the local executives to hand in strike notices because of the employers' refusal of men's demands for an increase in pay of 10 shillings per week. A conference held at the ministry of labor, in an effort to compose the difficulties, proved abortive, but it is still hoped that at the last minute newly-inaugurated negotiations will enable a settlement to be brought about. The railways, the tram car lines, and the bus services would not be affected.

Classification Ruling

Appeal of U.G. on Road Graders Is Turned Down

Ottawa.—The board of railway commissioners has ruled that a reduction of the classification of road graders below the present rating of one and one-half times first class is not justified.

The United Grain Growers applied to the board for reduction of classification to the first class, with minimum of 5,000 pounds on the axle.

The U.G.G. commission granted application of the freight adjusting bureau of Vancouver B.C., for the application of $2.65 rate on shoddy blankets, bringing them under item 250 of Canadian freight association tariff No. 1A.

Destroy Turk Navy

Turkish Warships Will Be Broken Up According to Pact

London.—The disposition of the Turkish navy was definitely settled by the allied supreme council when it decided that the peace treaty should provide that the warships be broken up. The Turkish army will be reduced to such a point by the peace terms that it would not be effective against another country.

The council deliberated over the report of Marshal Foch on the military situation as regards Turkey. It did not determine on the question of details of the military terms of the treaty.

Phoned From Winnipeg to Montreal

Winnipeg.—The first commercial long distance telephone call from this city to Montreal was made by H. M. McFarlane, who spoke to his son at the Mount Royal club, as well as two other Montreal persons. The voices were distinct, though in the ordinary tone, and connections were made via the New York, Chicago and Minneapolis without delay.

Necessity Is Not Only the mother of invention, but the divorced wife of plenty.

Charges Against Five Meat Packers in U. S.

J. H. Montgomery Declares They Lowered Livestock Prices

Washington.—The big five meat packers were charged in testimony given before the house agriculture committee by J. H. Montgomery, of Basin, Wyoming, with having live stock prices reduced and driven growers out of business.

Mr. Montgomery described himself as just an ordinary stock grower. He deplored injunctions and "immunity suits" in proceedings against the packers.

The packers thrive on injunctions, he said. "An injunction does not bother them any more than insect powder does a coccid. The whole livestock industry should be put through a de-lousing station."

Mr. Montgomery charged the packers with efforts to influence stock growers and prevent their protesting against legislation for their control.

Turks to Receive Treaty March 22

Has Now Been Practically Completed By the Supreme Council

London.—The peace conference has closed its London sessions, after preparing the Turkish treaty and its economic conclusions in such a manner that they may be completed by assistants. The treaty will be handed to Turkey at Paris on March 22, it was announced.

It was possible that Premier Millerand will come to London the latter part of this week to confer with the principal members of the committee on the Turkish treaty and on the contentions of the Hungarians regarding their treaty.

Urges Uniform Divorce Law

Ontario Bar Association's President Wants Federal House to Take Action

Toronto.—Uniformity of Canadian laws of divorce was urged by President N. B. Gash in his address to the Ontario Bar Association, which opened its fourteenth annual meeting at Osgoode Hall. He said: "The judicial systems of the civilized countries throughout the world are too varied and conflicting to permit any dream of international uniform system of divorce laws, but it is high time that Canada began to put her house in order for this purpose. Parliament should bring about a general law superseding all the preceding laws on the subject, and conferring to courts constituted for the purpose, the disposition of such cases. Only in this way shall we put an end for all time to the uncertainty, confusion and conflict of laws that have been cropping up and are bound to increase as time goes by."

Want to Run Own School

Mennonites Would Do So In Accordance With Manitoba Public School Act

Winnipeg.—Requesting that the trusteeship of one of the Mennonite schools be returned to them, and that it be their intention and desire to conduct the school, if given control, in accordance with the Manitoba Public School Act, a delegation composed of four Mennonites, waited upon the provincial government. The school for which they ask the trusteeship had been run as a private school, and was taken over by the government in 1918 to ensure compliance with the act, and it has since been operating in a satisfactory way.

More Murders in Ireland

Dublin.—The killing of three persons in various parts of Ireland have been reported in a period of 24 hours. Captain Shaw Taylor, a landowner, was shot dead at Athlone, County Galway, an unknown man died as the result of wounds received in Dublin, and Roger Marsh was killed at Cork by a party of armed men.

Millionaire Charged With Conspiracy

Minneapolis.—William Bros. Lloyd, millionaire sergeant-at-arms of the Communist Labor party, and fifteen other Communists must stand trial on indictments recently returned charging them with conspiracy to overthrow the government by force.

Judge Oscar Hebebrand declined a motion to quash the indictments.

Lord French's Mail Seized

Dublin.—A mail van containing letters of Viscount French, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland and government officials, held up by armed men, who carried off the mail.

High Prices At The Brandon Swine Auction

Average Was $96.50, and Total Realized Was $2,925

Brandon.—Good prices prevailed at the swine sale. An average of $96.50 was paid for each hog.

In all there were 21 animals offered for sale, and $2,925 was realized. This is considered to be a splendid figure. The highest price for any one animal is $200 for Mastodon Lady, a Poland China.

There was also paid $180 for an other Poland China. The top price obtained for a Yorkshire was $122.50. The best price obtained for a Berkshire was $65.50.

The sheep sale did not produce any good prices. The buyers were not bidding long prices on the offerings, with the result that the owners did not care to sacrifice their sheep.

The top price obtained for Oxford for a single animal was $45.

Borden's Health Is Better

Foster Says Premier Will Be Back Inside of Two Months

Ottawa.—Sir George Foster announced in the House of Commons that if the present rate of improvement in the health of the Prime Minister continued, Sir Robert Borden would be in the house again within two months. It was Dr. Bland who asked for information as to the Prime Minister's condition and plans.

"With reference to the health of the Prime Minister," Sir George Foster replied, "I may say that for the two months he has been away, the improvement in his health has been marked, and if the same rate of improvement continues, as I hope it will, I have no reason to fear that we may not expect to have him with us, I think, within two months' time."

Urges Preparedness

May Not Have Allies to Hold Lines Next Time

Washington.—Urging foresight on the preparedness of the country, General Pershing declared the country should keep intact its machinery for manufacture of war materials and retain its military cantonnements.

"We might not have the allies to hold the line for us next time," Pershing said, in an interview following his return from a tour of inspection of the country's military resources.

Pershing said he found much sentiment for universal military training during his trips. He refused to talk politics.

MARCH WEATHER DANGEROUS TO BABY

Our Canadian March weather—one day bright, but sloppy, the next blustery and cold—is extremely hard on children. Conditions make it necessary for the mothers to keep the little one indoors. They are often confined to overheated, badly ventilated rooms and catch colds which rack their whole system. To guard against these colds and to keep the baby well till the better, brighter days come along, a box of Baby's Own Tablets should be kept in the house and an occasional dose given the baby to keep his stomach and bowels working regularly. The Tablets are a mild but thorough laxative which never fail to regulate the stomach and bowels and thus they relieve colds and simple fevers and keep the baby fit. The Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Western Canada Is Expecting New Settlers

Large Exodus Is Coming From the Other Side of the Line
An unprecedented number of farmers from the United States are intending to settle in Western Canada during the present year. One of the chief factors that is responsible for the large exodus from the other side of the line is the present exchange rate. It may not be generally known that American farmers, by availing themselves of the present rate of exchange, can save at least the first twelve months' expenses on their land. This has been the primary factor in inducing many of these settlers to make up their minds right away, hence the prospective record business. One man in Montana a short time ago, in order to be sure of reaping the benefit of the exchange rate, forwarded $6,000 to a friend here for investment in Canadian bonds.

Faint and Dizzy Spells: Weakness and Shortness of Breath.

You can generally tell from the heart is affected by the faint and dizzy spells, the shortness of breath, palpitation, throbbing, irregular beating, smothering sensations, weak, sinking, all-gone feeling, choking sensation, etc.
Many men and women become rundown and worn out when otherwise they could be strong and healthy if they would only pay some attention to the first sign of heart weakness. No remedy will do so much to make the heart regain strength and vigor, regulate its beat and have done so to a healthy and normal condition as Mrs. C. A. Drake, Paris, Ont., writes: "I have used on towards the second box of Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills and find they have done me good. I had those fainting, dizzy spells, once in a while, and also weakness and shortness of breath, and would become so choked up at times I could hardly sleep without sitting up in bed. When walking too fast I would have to stop and try to catch my breath. I feel a lot better since I have used your pills and know that they have helped me wonderfully. I have improved very much."

Norwegian vs. Prussian

Liberty-Loving Norwegians Are Direct Antithesis of Prussians
One summer day two well-mounted German officers, probably attending the Kaiser or making arrangements for his usual yachting trip to Norway, came along a Norwegian country road near our car, which had stopped on a side road, says Maurice F. Eagan, in his book, "Ten Years in the German Border." They were splendid-looking creatures, voluminously clothed, and their helmets glittered in the sun.

A peasant with two great pinelogs on a low-wheeled cart, was blocking the main road, and as it was noon he had sat down to eat his luncheon. One of the officers haughtily commanded him to clear the way, but the peasant put his hands into his pockets and said, "Mr. Man, I must eat my logs when I can. First, I must eat my luncheon. You can jump your horses over my logs. Why not?"

The officer made a motion as if to draw his revolver, but the Norwegian only laughed.

"Besides," he said, "there is a wheel off my cart. I cannot move it very quickly."
The language of the officers was terrifying, but finally they were compelled to jump. Neither the sun, nor the fierce eagles nor the curses of the officers moved the amiable man. He drank peacefully from his bottle of schnapps and munched his black bread and sausage as if he had never crossed the path of these two great persons. His attitude was characteristic of his people, for the liberty-loving Norwegians are the direct antithesis of the Prussians and all that they represent.

A little lad of five came to his mother in a great flutter and exclaimed, "Oh, muver, Eddie and Wose found such a nice dead cat and they are going to have a funeral and can I go?"

Permission was given and when the boy returned he was questioned about the ceremony.

"They didn't have it at all," he said.

"And why not?"

"Muver" was the answer, "the cat was too dead!"

Big Percheron Sale in Britain

High Prices Secured at Messrs. Tattersall's, Knightsbridge
At Messrs. Tattersall's, Knightsbridge, England, on Monday, a number of Percheron mares and stallions were offered, and met with a good trade. The first lots on offer were specially selected, and imported by Messrs. Hy. Overman and T. L. Wickham-Bryan. The highest price was paid by Lord Minto for that splendid grey mare Quindille, foaled in 1916, which he secured for 500 guineas. Mr. G. M. Gibbs went to 480 guineas for the grey mare Ole, which it will be remembered was second at the Royal Cardiff Show, 1919. At 440 guineas Lord Minto secured Neronde, a grey mare by Jack, the property of Messrs. H. and J. Drage. By private sale, Mrs. Emmett secured Negation, a seven-year-old grey mare, right footed at the end of February, at £400. She is by Gogel, and out of Jericho. This mare has already done very well at the French shows in 1919. The same lady also secured Nemesia, another seven-year-old, by Javort, at £430. This mare possesses the right blood, and should do well at English shows. Other chief prices and purchases were:—

Big Naval Spring Cleaning

British Will Soon Have No 12-inch Guns on Battleships
The British navy will soon have no twelve-inch guns on its battleships. There is going to be a big naval spring cleaning, and among the obsolete vessels to be sold are some whose work has made history. The list will probably include the Bellerophon, St. Vincent, Hercules, Collingwood, Indomitable, Superb, Neptune, Colossus and Infelible.

An admiralty official explained that the new gunnery policy was responsible for the obsolescence of many vessels because the ranges for modern work have increased, and the battleships commissioned from now on will have 13.05 and 15-inch guns, or probably bigger ones.

Some of the vessels just named may be sold to foreign powers or to the overseas Dominions. They cost the country $5,000,000 to $5,250,000 each. It is remarked that this change does not imply any big additions to the navy, as it has plenty of ships for present needs.

Italy's Peace Treaty Book

Binding of the German Copy is of Solid Block
Fifteen copies of the treaty of Versailles, one for each of the allies and associated nations that affixed signatures to the ratification of the document, have been distributed in handsome bindings by the supreme council of the League of Nations. One of the binding of each copy, excepting only that of Germany, is a device or coat of arms. The binding of the German copy is solid block, without a mark of any kind to relieve its appearance of gloom. The most ornate of the volumes is that of Italy. The device on that of Czechoslovakia, the infant among nations, consists of three palm leaves and is the simplest of any volume, with the exception of Germany's.

BAR U AND NAMAKA FARM PERCHERONS
The largest stud of the Pure-bred Percherons in the World. The first Percheron-breeding farm established in Canada. The only firm on the American continent from which British horsemen have selected Percheron breeding stock to establish studs in Britain.
Do not let the British breeders come to Canada and carry off all our best foundation stock. Do not be satisfied with the cheap old stallions brought in by irresponsible dealers and stallion peddlars from the United States, when you can buy the best individuals of the best breeding valued right here in Alberta by men that have been in the breeding business for 25 years, and expect to remain in the business. We have twenty-four hand of Purebred Percheron Stallions of our own breeding now on hand to select from. You can see their size and dams, and if you cannot choose one from the lot to suit you we will give you every assistance in our power. Write for prices or come to Calgary, Alberta, and we will meet you and show you the stock at any time.—Address:—
GEORGE LANE, CALGARY, ALBERTA

FARMERS BREED PERCHERONS
The only breed of draft horses ever shipped back to England from Canada for breeding purposes were Percherons. The greatest breed of draft horses in North America are Percherons. The safest investment in draft horses today is Percherons. A profit to own—A pleasure to handle.
You will make no mistake in your horse breeding this year if you use a Percheron mare.

Rumanian Girl's Gallant Record
Was Killed in Action Though Previously Disabled by Wounds
The story of the bravery and sacrifice during the war of 16-year-old Ekaterina Teodoroiu—the Rumanian Jean d'Arc—a girl scout, who was killed in action, was told by Major Liviu D. Tezemasanu, military attaché of the Rumanian Legation at Washington, in an address before the Manhattan Council of Boy Scouts.

The Major, who is the head of the Boy Scouts of Rumania, said that at the beginning of the war his country had 50,000 boy and girl scouts. When the Rumanian Army was mobilized, Ekaterina donned boys' clothes and enlisted in the 8th Company of the Eighth Regiment. After going through numerous engagements, both of her legs were shattered by shell fragments, and her sex was discovered.

The King heard of her heroism and commissioned her an honorary lieutenant in the 33rd Regiment. She pleaded to be allowed to return to the front and her request was granted. She was killed in action a few days later.

Keep Fit For Success In Life

BY DR. A. B. BARBOUR
You can take your boy and out of him make anything you like if you can get him under good self-discipline. All roads are open to the man who is strong and fit. Uncle Sam took our boys—"those slab-sided, stooped, hollow-chested youths—made of them vigorous, well-developed, well-set-up and courageous men. Take the right way! Train yourself and your children to take proper exercise, drink plenty of water and keep the system clean. Your doctor will tell you that anything from a common cold or headache to the most serious illness may result from the absorption of poisons in the intestines.

The first principle is to keep the system clean. Occasionally see that the boy or girl, as well as yourself, has an internal bath. It may be by castor oil or a tiny pill of May-apple, aloin and jalap, which is sold by druggists as Dr. Heron's Pleasant Laxative. If a cold starts with a cough and its attendant, then some local treatment for this condition should be taken. A well-known local alternative extract which has been on the market for a great many years, and which has been highly recommended by thousands of users, is Dr. Farrow's Golden Medical Discovery. This tonic compound is composed of an extract of roots and herbs, without alcohol, and has a soothing effect upon the mucous membrane, allays the irritation and at the same time, works in the proper and reasonable way, at the seat of the trouble, the stagnated or poisoned blood.
